Notice of Vacancy

3/19/2024

The Council on Aging/Library Community Building Committee has a vacancy for an alternate member to represent the library.

Charge of the Committee

The Council on Aging/Library Community Building Committee was formed to create a combined Council on Aging/Library facility to meet the existing and future needs of the residents of the Town of Freetown. The Committee advises and supports the Building Committee, Selectmen, Council on Aging Board and Library Trustees on the design and construction of the combined COA/Library building, oversees the project budget and schedule, and coordinates with town agencies. This committee will work collaboratively with the Project Manager, and Building Committee to select specific aspects of the building project (i.e. flooring, paint colors, kitchen cabinets etc.). The committee will keep the Building Committee and Board of Selectmen updated on the status of the project
