The meeting was called to order by Jeannette Tisdelle at 11:15 AM.

Present: Charles Gray, Marion Rylands, Robert Martel, Edward Medeiros, Jeannette Tisdelle and Director Barbara Lafleur. Absent Bruce Wilbur.

Secretary's Report: Edward Medeiros made a motion, Ruth Ferland seconded to accept the September 21, 2015 minutes, motion carried.

Treasurers' Report: Pass

Old Business

Policies: Board, building, van drivers policy will be discussed at another scheduled meeting.

Amended Signage: Trying to stop traffic from going the wrong way behind the building. Sign in front of building would be a post sign, highway would install. Arrows will also be painted to show which direction to enter and exit for the back of building. Best Buy signs will be contacted through the Highway Dept. for estimate.

Building Usage: Amended version of letter was read and approved.

Van driver policy and procedures: Meeting on October 7, 2015.

New Business

Meat Bingo: Ruth Ferland and the Director will go and pick up meat packages that morning from Trucchi's. Games will be decided that day according to attendance. Meat packages will be based on number in attendance.

Luncheon October 27, 2015: Pumpkins donated and Ali Golz is having them decorated by the Junior Girl scouts Troop # 89065. Games will be played and dress in costume for Halloween that day. Maybe ask the school if seniors could parade through the school in costume?

Musical Instrument: Edward Medeiros wants the organ removed. Organ is out of tune, serving no purpose as it does not get used anymore. Get it removed or throw it away. Ask maintenance to take it to recycling, Edward Medeiros made the motion, Robert Martel seconded, motion passed.

Clothes Donation: Try to set these up during activities with many participants. Set up items for flu clinic on Saturday. Charles Gray made motion, seconded by Ruth Ferland at discretion of staff, motion passed.

Programs: Board of Health and Council on Aging are trying to put together a trip to Lasalette. School bus will be checked to see if feasible. All are welcome.

Motion to adjourn, motion passed.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Lafleur-Director
