Town of Freetown
North Main Street
Assonet, MA. 02702

Dear Members:

You are invited to attend a program on the Southeastern Massachusetts Bioreserve entitled "This Land is YOUR Land" On Tuesday, March 3 at 7:00 p.m. at the Freetown Historical Society Museum on Slab Bridge Road.

This program is open to the public and is being sponsored by the Tuesday Club of Assonet. Mr. Everett Castro, Stephanie Koorey, and Barry French will be presenting the program which was created by "Green Futures." They have also sponsored several nature walks in town. A good portion of the Bioreserve is located in Freetown. Come and learn some answers to such questions and more:

1. What is a Bioreserve?
2. Why was it formed?
3. Where is it located in Southeastern Mass.?
4. What opportunities are appropriate and available to residents for enjoyment and recreation?

We hope to see you there.

For any questions call: 508-644-5618
