Library Director's Report

There were thirteen applicants for the Library Technician position that was created in advance of Cheryl Belliveau's retirement. These were pared down to seven prior to the meeting. A review by the Trustees in attendance reduced the number by one to six. Those six will be asked in for interviews on Wednesday, February 27th beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the White Library.

The new staff computer for the White Library is on order. The disabled computer at the Hathaway Library has had its hard drive replaced and is working once again.

A number of museum passes are in demand and circulating for school vacation week. A new pass for the Pawtucket Red Sox was purchased to circulate in the libraries.

Also reported was the matter of a young man who has been cutting classes at Apponequet and coming to the library in lieu of school. His mother is aware and acknowledged there is an issue. The Trustees agreed that the library staff should not be responsible for truants seeking sanctuary. If he appears again during school hours, the school is to be called and asked to retrieve him; otherwise, the police are to be called.
