

Computer Use by Children Policy

Children age twelve and under are not allowed to use the Library computers unless they are accompanied by a parent/guardian or caregiver. The parent/guardian or caregiver is required to know what the child is using the computer for. Monitoring children on the Library computers is the responsibility of the parent/guardian or caregiver, not the Library Staff.

This Policy Was Originally Written and Approved by the Trustees of the Freetown Public Libraries December 2017

This Policy Was Reviewed and Approved by the Trustees of the Freetown Public Libraries January 17, 2019